

Objections are being made by the Republican and Democratic machine men to the pledge exacted of Silver League members. One unaccounted to the tactics of the regular politicians would suppose from what they say that the Silver League had made an innovation for which there is no precedent. The facts, however, prove the contrary. At the Republican primaries held last April for the election of delegates to the State Convention. Each and every person voting pledged himself to support the nominees of the Republican party. At the Democratic primaries a similar pledge was exacted of those who voted. That has been the custom with all parties and no doubt it will continue to be while people continue to divide politically. If such precautions were not adopted organization could not be maintained. Without a pledge Democrats might control Republican meetings and conventions, and Republicans or Anarchists might assume the management of the convention now being held at Chicago, or Wall Street men, if there are enough of them in the community, might undertake to conduct the affairs of the convention which is to meet here tomorrow. Every society, whether religious, civil or political, has pledges which bind the members together and those who object to the Silver League because it exacts a pledge from its members, have the same cause for complaint against every organization in the United States.

If there be valid reasons why a person professing to favor the full remonetization of silver, that our deserted mining camps may be repopulated and prosperity restored to the State, should not pledge himself to support no candidate for legislative or executive office, who is not pledged by platform and declaration to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, neither the Wall Street organs nor agents have made them public.

THE MONETARY CONFERENCE.

It is reported as probable that by the close of the week the details of the Monetary Conference will be decided upon so that the matter may be officially brought to the attention of Congress, and that the conference may meet in Paris or Brussels by August 1st.

It is contended that an international agreement on silver in the form of a treaty by the several Governments would put the question beyond the realm of legislation. If it was desired to pass a free coinage bill in the United States it would be held that such legislation would be in violation of a treaty with foreign nations.

The Colorado Record says the surest and most effective way of burying the silver question so deeply that no trumpet of the people, no matter how loudly sounded, could resurrect it, is to make it a matter of international treaty or agreement. The intention of the single standard advocates is said to be to make such a treaty and put the question beyond reach of the people by making an agreement, which the United States cannot amend, with European powers now friendly to silver.

Congress demonized silver and Republicans as well as Democrats admitted that it made a mistake in doing so. Now it will rectify that mistake by opening the mints for the coinage of silver and gold and that it can do without the assistance of any foreign power.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Democratic National Convention spent the greater part of yesterday listening to speeches and music. Wilson of West Virginia, one of the brightest men in Congress, was elected Permanent Chairman. The report of the Committee on Credentials was unanimously adopted, and the Committee on Platform defeated a free coinage resolution by a vote of 28 to 18. A minority report was submitted by the silver men, who made a gallant fight for the debased metal but without avail. Wall Street persuaders were used with as telling effect as at Minneapolis and the silver men were voted down.

There is now only one main course for Nevadans to pursue and that is to bury past party differences and vote as one man for a free coinage candidate for President of the United States. How in the name of consistency can anybody who is not a Federal office holder or a candidate for Federal position support either Wall Street party and claim to be upholding the best interests of the State?

"The office-holders and money kings have triumphed and the people's idol has been relegated to private life. Harrison's nomination fell like a wet blanket on Nevada," said the Carson Tribune the day Harrison was nominated, and now the same paper urges the people of Nevada to support the choice of the office-holders and money kings. In the language of the Emeralds law maker, "consistency, where art thy jewelry?"

The Wall street organ, whose editor was a delegate to the Virginia City Convention, which condemned Harrison's administration for its hostility to silver, and now advocates the election of Harrison, "hopes there will be honest men enough in the silver Convention to hold the office-seekers level and not allow them to injure the silver cause by ill-advised action." Is that irony, idiosyncrasy or hypocrisy?

"We condemn Harrison's administration and Eastern Republicans insofar as they have refused to remonetize silver," says the Nevada Republican platform. "Vote for the man the platform condemns," say the Republican spoilsman and organ grinders.

Seven Southern States are up in arms against Wall street, and will not support Cleveland nor Harrison.

CLEVELAND THE NOMINEE

Nominated On the First Ballot By 616% Votes.

A SYNOPSIS OF THE PLATFORM

Proceedings of the Convention.

CHICAGO, June 22.—At 7:58 P.M. Watson took the platform and denounced the tariff plank in the platform as a straddle that should not be reported.

A motion to substitute the minority tariff plank for that of the majority report was made by Mr. Neal of Ohio. A roll of the roll of States was demanded.

The motion to substitute the minority tariff plank was carried by a vote of 616 for and 342 against.

Patterson of Colorado took the platform to present a substitute for the silver plank in the majority report. His substitute declared for the free coinage of gold and silver, the unit to be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value. Motion lost.

Governor Abbott took the platform and presented the name of Cleveland. At the close of his speech there was a rousing demonstration for Cleveland.

Dewitt of New York took the platform to present the name of Hill. He said New York was in a position where her voice should be listened to. That without New York the Democratic party could not hope to cast its electoral vote necessary to elect a Democratic President. When Dewitt mentioned Hill's aphorism, "I am a Democrat," there was loud cheering.

Col. Fellows took the platform to second the name of Hill. He said the State of New York from the western boundary to the ocean demanded the nomination of Hill.

A. W. Greer of Illinois and English of Indiana seconded the nomination of Cleveland.

A letter from Senator Voorhees was read endorsing Cleveland.

Duncombe of Iowa presented the name of Boies. The New York delegation joined in the demonstration at the mention of the name of Boies. Henton of Kansas seconded Boies.

The State of New York asked to be passed for the present.

Motion to adjourn until tomorrow at 11 o'clock being argued. The Chairman decided the motion not to adjourn during the call of States. Burke Cochran appealed from the decision of the Chair, and the motion was withdrawn.

Cleveland was nominated on the first ballot by a vote of 616%, and the rest were divided between Hill, Boies, Carlisle, Morrison, Campbell, Gorman, Russell and Stevenson. Alaska's vote settled the nomination. The nomination was received with great cheering. All the silver producing States voted against Cleveland. New York went 72 for Hill and Nevada 4 for Boies and 2 for Gorman.

The official roll was: Cleveland, 616; Hill, 112; Boies, 103; Gorman, 36%; Stevenson, 16%; Morrison, 5; Carlisle, 15; Campbell, 2; Patterson, 1; Whitley, 1; Russell, 1.

Convention adjourned at 4:05.

During the reading of the platform some delegates mentioned Cleveland's name and it brought forth great applause, but the New York delegation sat in a solid phalanx in stern silence. The great majority of the delegates from the States of Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska and Nevada did not join in cheering. Banners bearing the portrait of Cleveland and Boies was brought into the hall and cheering was renewed, three-quarters of the spectators joining in a Cleveland hurrah. Twelve minutes after the beginning of the demonstration brawls and grunts were heard which appeared to come from the neighborhood of New York, but were overwhelmed by cheers. Nineteen minutes were consumed when Vilas raised his powerful voice and pleaded for a hearing. After the uproar had subsided he continued reading the platform which was greeted with great applause throughout. Jones moved the adoption of the platform as read, but Neal of Ohio interrupted with an amendment, moving to strike out of the section of the platform pertaining to tariff all words preceding the denunciation of McKinley and substitute the following:

"We denounce Republican protection as a fraud. [Cheers.] We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff, except for purposes of revenue only, and we demand the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the Government then honestly and economically administered."

Every man, spectator or delegate, who held a ticket knew full well as he went to the Wigwam this afternoon that before the session was over the battle would be on. The New York delegation came first into the hall and a genuine Tammany yell came from them, followed by a cry of Hill, but this was received with a hissing storm. The great through, however, subsided when Chairman Wilson thumped his desk and the session began. At the conclusion of the prayer the band rendered "America."

During the time which elapsed after the calling of the convention to order and before the Committee on Resolutions were ready to report, canvassing among different delegates progressed with great activity. When the Chairman announced that the Committee on Resolutions was ready to report howls and applause arose from all quarters. Col. Jones, Chairman of the Committee, then presented the platform and moved its adoption. Patterson of Colorado interrupted him with an amendment. He represented the minority of the the Committee and wished to state that the minority expected to be heard before the previous question was put. Vilas of Wisconsin then read the platform.

The Platform.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Following is a synopsis of the platform:

After reaffirming allegiance to the Jeffersonian principles, and declaring a return to these principles necessary.

The platform warns the people of the dangers of the policy of Federal control of elections to which the Republican party has committed itself. The so-called Force bill is denounced in the severest terms as the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the Senate.

The platform continues, each policy, if sanctioned by law would mean the dominance of a self-perpetuating oligarchy of office-holders, and the party first entrusted with the machinery could be dislodged from power only by appeal to the reserved right of the people to resist oppressions which is inherent in all self-governing communities. The Republican party has declared that its success in the coming elections will mean the enactment of the Force bill and the usurpation of despotic control over elections in all the States.

The platform invites the support of all citizens who desire to see the Constitution maintained in its integrity, and pledges the Democratic party, not only to the defeat of the Force bill, but also to the relentless opposition of the Republican policy of profligate expenditure.

The tariff plank reiterates the doctrine that the necessity of the Government is the only justification for taxation. The enormous additional imposition of the existing tariff falls with crushing force upon our farmers and workmen, and we demand such revision of the tariff laws as will remove the iniquitous inequalities, lighten impositions, and put them upon a constitutional and equitable basis. By making reduction of taxes it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries. Many industries rely on legislation for their successful continuance, so that any change in the law must be regarded of the labor and capital both involved.

The McKinley bill is denounced as the culminating atrocity of class legislation and the efforts of the present Congress to modify its most oppressive features, are endorsed.

The platform points to the reductions and strikes in the iron trade as the best evidence that no prosperity has resulted from the McKinley Act.

Attention is called to the enormous increase in farm mortgages during thirty years' restrictive taxes and the platform continues, we denounce the policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the Sheriff.

Reciprocity as practiced by the Republican party is denounced as a sham.

The platform declares that trusts are the natural consequences of prohibitive taxes, which prevent free competition, and demands a rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them.

The platform charges the Republican party with giving away the public lands to railroads and non-resident aliens; declares that the last Democratic Administration reclaimed nearly a hundred million acres of this land and the party pledges itself to continue this policy.

The silver plank denounces the Sherman Act of 1890 as a cowardly makeshift and says, we hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for minting it, but the dollar unit coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic value or adjusted to such by safeguards of legislation, as shall insure the maintenance of parity between the two metals and the equal power of every dollar in the markets and the payments of debts. The protection of the farmers and the laboring classes is insisted upon by a demand that paper currency be kept at par and redeemable in such coin.

The repeal of the prohibitory tax on State bank issues is recommended.

Legislation by Congress and State Legislatures to protect the lives of the employees of transportation companies is favored and the Republican party and the Senate is denounced for preventing such legislation.

The passage of laws abolishing the sweating system, contract convict labor and prohibiting the employment of children under fifteen years of age are favored.

The platform is concluded by saying: "Under this statement of principles and policies the Democratic party asks the intelligent judgment of the American people. It asks a change of Administration and a change of party in order that there may be a change of methods, thus assuring the maintenance, unimpeded, of the institutions under which the Republic has grown great and powerful."

Grand Encampment Officers.

At the eighteenth annual session of the Grand Encampment of I. O. O. F. of Nevada the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Grand Patriarch, G. A. Krenkle of Winnemucca; Grand High Priest, Wm. Euston of Austin; Grand Senior Warden, Al. White of Reno; Grand Scribe, L. Guggenheim of Virginia; Grand Treasurer, J. A. Hantout of Dayton; Grand Junior Warden, E. T. Reynolds of Dayton; Trustees—J. R. Shaw of Dayton, F. M. Fellows of Humboldt, and J. J. Becker of Reno.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are

After Eating

Distress some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia, I had little appetite, and what I did eat had but little effect, and what I did eat but little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had for the company and for the company of such other business as may come before the meeting. F. M. LEE, Secretary. THE CHAUTAUQUA BANQUET.

A Merry Gathering of Chautauquans Around the Banquet Hall.
The Sagebrush Circle of Chautauquans Tuesday evening gave a most enjoyable banquet at Mrs. Olin Ward's. It was the completion of the year's work and was a happy conclusion of a delightful year spent in the pursuit of wisdom. The early part of the evening was spent in a general conversation and at 10 o'clock all repaired to the banquet hall where a feast fit for the gods was spread before the Chautauquans. Those gathered around the feastal board were C. D. Van Duzer, Miss Mary Snow and Mrs. Housley; U. A. Norcross and Miss Sue Shoemaker; Edward Williams and Miss Lena Joy; Frank Norcross and Miss Mattie Connors; Mr. L. D. Folsom, Mrs. George H. Taylor, the Misses Stanley, Boyd and Gillman and others.
After the assembled guests were well settled down to the pleasant task of disposing of the delicious viands, C. D. Van Duzer, toast master, in a few opening remarks, appropriate to the occasion announced a toast "To the Ladies" which was responded to by Mr. L. D. Folsom in a most happy and felicitous manner. His happy and witty tribute to the ladies, called forth appreciative applause.
Mr. Chas. A. Norcross in a "silver" manner responded to "Politics." He said: "To politics, the one thing, which the ladies, God bless them, do not run. It is the invidious joker in life's game of enshure, which takes many tricks, gets snatched often and never wholly wins the game."
Mr. Frank Norcross in his smooth and fluent style eloquently responded to "Nevada" and so apt and telling were his remarks that he was frequently applauded. He spoke feelingly of the dear old sagebrush State and her native sons and daughters.
William E. Barney responded to "Our Future," and with a pleasing delivery caught the sympathy of the guests.
Edward Williams who has just returned to Nevada from Indiana spoke on Nevada people and how pleasing were their respects to those who return to her smiling valleys, sheltering mountains and warm hearted people.
Miss Echo Leder, on behalf of the ladies in a few and appropriate remarks, patriotically paid a tribute to America, and with the singing of America the guests departed, carrying with them pleasant memories that will linger for years and cause the first banquet to be a red letter day in the Sagebrush Circle's history.

THE FAST MAIL.

A Play That is Noted for its Mechanical Effects.

What promises to be the greatest attempt in the era of realism will be seen at the Opera House next Saturday evening in L. J. Carter's melodrama, the "Fast Mail." The play is famous throughout the country for the completeness of its mechanical effects. Special scenery is carried for the ten complete sets used in the play. In the second act a steamboat is shown with the boiler rooms and their intricate machinery, and the glowing furnaces.
In the last act Niagara Falls are shown in all their natural beauty. A cataraict of real water is put on the stage, and it boils and foams in the most natural way.

What Shall I Take?

Why Simmons Liver Regulator, of course. It can't be beat in any attack of Indigestion, Biliousness, Sick Headache or Constipation. It gives quick relief, and if continued for a while will completely cure these ailments. The Regulator comes in liquid and powder form. The powder is wonderfully convenient for the vest pocket. A pinch of the powder and a swallow of water leaves no taste and works effectually.

Mrs. Grace Horkins, a lady over 80 years of age, attempted suicide in Virginia City last Tuesday by cutting her throat with a razor. She had been suffering for years with a malady which at times rendered her insane, and during one of those spells she committed the rash act. The doctors pronounced her wounds fatal.

Poisoned Snuff.

An old New Yorker, who takes snuff regularly, wrote to Sanitary Superintendent Edison a few days ago to complain that some snuff which he had been using had caused inflammatory symptoms which suggested poison. Dr. Edison examined the sample of snuff which was sent with the complaint and discovered that chromate of lead, known in the trade as chrome yellow, had been mixed with the snuff to brighten it. He next ascertained where the snuff was manufactured in the city, and called on the manufacturer for an explanation. Subsequently the manufacturer declared that he had used the poisonous color in the snuff by mistake, supposing that he was using a harmless means of improving the appearance of the article. He promised to stop using chrome yellow, and also consented to destroy some of his stock which had been colored with it.—New York Letter.

A Prehistoric Burial Ground.

An interesting archeological find has been reported from the neighborhood of Foster's Ferry, on the Warrior river, about nine miles south of Tuscaloosa, Ala. When the recent high waters receded from the river bottom it was found that the current had unearthed a prehistoric burial ground. Great quantities of human bones, rough stonework and pottery were left exposed. It is surmised here from the nature of the relics found that it was a Choctaw burial ground, but a thorough examination will be made at once and the results reported.

Miss Edwards' Forts.

The late Miss Edwards was a member of the Biblical Archeological society, of the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies and of the various oriental congresses, which are from time to time held in various European capitals. She was also an active promoter of the objects advocated by the Egyptian Exploration fund, founded in 1893, of which she has been for some years the honorary secretary. During the winter of 1899-1900 she delivered no fewer than 115 lectures on Egyptology in the United States and at the centenary celebration of Columbia college received the honorary degree of L. H. D. Professor Tyndall and the president of Queen's college, Oxford, being the only other British subjects selected for honors at the occasion. At the beginning of the present year Miss Edwards was accorded a pension on the civil list.—New York Evening Sun.

An Undesirable Partner at Dinner.

A woman writes to protest against being assigned to a gourmand at dinner. On him all the charm of wit and flow of spirit is wasted. He laughs, but in a perfunctory fashion. He experiences a toadlike joy at having a partner pretty and well dressed, but his immediate concern is as to the soup and what particular cuts he gets.

As he appears to listen his attention is shared by other people's plates, and in mental calculation as to his portion. His spirits rise and fall with the courses; if the champagne is not cold enough or the duck is too dry, he grows morose. Too much talking makes him nervous, lest some succulent tidbit tumble down unawares. The more he talks, the more he is talking. "I've just swallowed two pieces of green fat without knowing it"—Exchange.

There is no Pain Like Toothache.

It "beats the dogs" for making a fellow squirm. Nobody pines you. "Get it out," says one, "rub the tooth against a stone," says another; "when it begins to swell it won't hurt so much," says a third. The reason of the ache is you didn't use Serravallo's, and prevent your teeth from decay.

Miss Davenport's "Makeup Tag."

Fanny Davenport has one little superstition, all her own at first, but now spreading rapidly among her sisters, great and small, in the profession. A black silk stocking, when used as a "makeup rag" (to lay the powder or rouge upon the face), has been, she thinks, a "masquerade" to her, and she will never be without one. Now, therefore, when black silk hosiery becomes thin or spots that are absolutely desirable, the fair wearer may convert it to another essential purpose.—Chicago Post.

A Millionaire's Admirers.

Being a millionaire has its drawbacks. N. C. Creed, who is the founder of this great mining camp, knows this to be a fact. Every day he receives letters from all parts of the country signed by women who want to marry him. It might be refreshing for these matrimonially inclined females to know that all such letters and photographs are turned over to his wife.—Crescent (Colo.) Chronicle.

A novel fire engine is being tried by the Berlin fire department. "German Syrup"

A Cough For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite, or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

Nearly $100,000,000 a Year.

Mr. James Wright, second vice-president of the Inman line, says that when the end of 1899 comes at least 100,000 people will have left for Europe from all parts of this country during the year. Half of them will sail during the fifteen weeks of the season, from April to August. Some travelers will carry hundreds of dollars in their pocketbooks to spend where others carry thousands. Nine-tenths of those hundreds and thousands will be transferred to foreign owners before the tourists return.

Even the money spent for passage and during the voyage must be counted in that which bids goodby to this land of liberty, for the great steamship companies are, with one exception, foreign corporations. Including tips and fees these corporations will take an average of $100 from each passenger for the round trip. The majority will pay less, but there will be enough rich men who who pay a good deal more to bring the mean amount up to that figure.

The money which each tourist carries with him is harder to estimate. A foreign exchange clerk said that the letters of credit issued by them to European travelers average about $300, or $3,000 each; but this is above the ordinary figure, and a party of four or five. Eight hundred dollars is estimated as the average amount taken by each passenger in the cabin. This makes the total average expenditure of the average European traveler $900. When this is multiplied by the estimated total of these travelers the result is astounding.

It is $90,000,000.

Ninety-six millions of dollars carried from America to Europe in a single year by travelers alone! If this were saved for a few years Uncle Sam might buy a good slice of Europe and bring it over here for exhibition purposes.—New York Press.

Lenten Offerings.

The Lenten offerings of the Sunday school children of the Protestant Episcopal church throughout the United States thus far received in behalf of the general board of missions as largely in excess of those for the same period in 1891. In the two weeks immediately succeeding Easter 1,187 Sunday schools sent in $26,690, and it is believed a total of $100,000 will have been received when all of the 4,000 schools in the country shall have been heard from. This is double the sum donated last year.

The Lenten Sunday school offering is a feature of the work of the board of missions. Just before Lent this year the board sent a package of folding pocket-book savings banks to each Sunday school superintendent for distribution among his pupils for the reception of the children's savings during the fasting season.

No sooner had Easter passed than the little banks began to arrive at the offices of the board in the Bible House.

The twenty-five young women in Bishop Loomard's school in Reno, Nev., sent $350. One school sent in 5,000 pennies and another 10,000 pennies.

It will be July before all the returns will have been received.—New York Herald.

Macaulay's Birthplace.

Rothley Temple, Lord Macaulay's birthplace, is for sale by public auction. It is an old manor house, some six miles from Leicester, and there the historian was born at the end of the year 1800. It cannot be said that Rothley Temple derived more than nominal lustre from the association, for Macaulay left Leicestershire before he had left infancy, and Birch Lane, in the city, was the home of his earliest childhood. Instead of a manorial park he had Drapers' gardens for a playground, until he went to live in the old High street at Clapham.

The Leicestershire manor, however, has many historical interests besides this one, and a Thirteenth century chapel of the Knights Templars is attached to the estate. It is a wealthy manor, too, for 900 acres produce £3,000 of annual rent; and, moreover, it is at the headquarters of the famous Quorn Hunt, and in the heart of some famous scenery.—London Star.

Cost of an Epidemic.

Dr. Thrash, the medical officer for the county of Essex, having obtained full returns of the late epidemic of influenza, estimates that no less than 540 persons died under the immediate attack, and that no fewer than 1,400 deaths occurred in the county from the direct or indirect influence of the epidemic. The loss for two months during which the epidemic prevailed he states at no less than £50,000, on the basis of the loss of wages of adults calculated at twelve shillings a week. He adds: "I am, however, afraid that had the county suffered from an epidemic among cattle, causing in the time the same number of deaths and indicating the same pecuniary loss, the alarm produced would have been greater and more permanent."—British Medical Journal.

A 100,000 Pound Chip of a Rock.

A stone quarry company of Bedford, Ind., has shipped the largest single block of stone ever quarried and shipped in the United States. The block was 12 feet 8 inches long, 6 feet 8 inches high and 6 feet 8 inches wide, containing 500 cubic feet, and weighed 100,000 pounds. The car on which it was shipped had to be ordered specially for it, and was the car that was built for the purpose of transporting the thirty-foot cannon sent by the government to the Pacific coast a few months since. The stone is perfect, not having a flaw or defect.—Indianapolis Journal.

A Telephone in Every Room.

The new hotel, Waldorf, is to be fitted with telephone communication between the office and every room in the house. This is a system stated to be in use in the Adelphi, Liverpool, and as a feature of hotel service is an important one, especially in the saving of time. Instead of pushing a button and waiting for a half boy to answer the ring, guests can communicate their order to the office at once and have it filled in one-half the time.—New York World.
